

Alexis Lopez

Senior Trial Paralegal

Office: Austin

Phone: 512.439.3200

Fax: 512.439.3201

Overview

Meet Alexis, a dedicated professional with a passion for law and a commitment to excellence. Alexis earned her B.S. in political science from Texas State University, where her passion for the intricacies of legal systems began to flourish. Building on this foundation, she furthered her education by obtaining a paralegal studies certificate from the University's master's program in 2014.

In 2015, Alexis embarked on her journey with Hendler Law and quickly became an invaluable asset to the firm. Today, she holds the esteemed position of Senior Trial Paralegal, playing a pivotal role in the firm's success. As a Senior Trial Paralegal, Alexis collaborates closely with our attorneys, meticulously crafting and developing case evidence from the initial intake stage through to trial. Her keen attention to detail and unwavering dedication ensures that no stone is left unturned in building strong legal cases. She is also responsible for expertly managing progress and timelines, guaranteeing that deadlines are consistently met.

Beyond her dedication to the legal world, Alexis leads a fulfilling life outside the office. She's a sports enthusiast, regularly hitting the gym at the crack of dawn to stay fit. Her creative side shines through in her love for arts and crafts, which serves as a source of relaxation and rejuvenation. Above all, Alexis places a premium on quality time with her family, cherishing every moment spent together.

Residing in the vibrant city of San Antonio, Alexis proudly wears her Spurs fandom on her sleeve. Her diverse interests and unwavering commitment make her an exceptional addition to the Hendler Law family and a respected figure in the legal community.

Education

- Bachelor's Degree from Texas State University in Criminal Justice and Political Science in 2013
- Paralegal Certification from Texas States' Legal Studies graduate program in 2014